HOME VISITS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

organized by the University of the Ryukyus Alumni Association

Looking for opportunities to experience home away from home?

Want to try living life as a local and share your own cultural experiences and practices with families in Okinawa?

In promotion of international exchange, the University of the Ryukyus Alumni Association is extending an invitation to up to 30 international students to spend time with host families in Okinawa. (Conversational level of Japanese proficiency preferred)

There are four sessions (June 3, 4, 10, 11) available, and each session is about 5 hours in duration.

Home visits are free of charge and no payment is required!

Activities may include:
Experiencing Okinawa food and culture
Visiting places of local interest
Learning about yukata and kimono, karate, flower arrangement and more!

To apply, scan this QR code to register your personal and contact info, along with your preferred date of participation by May 15th (Mon)!
