HOME VISITS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

organized by the University of the Ryukyus Alumni Association

Looking for opportunities to experience home away from home?
Want to try living life as a local and share your own cultural experiences and practices with families in Okinawa?

In promotion of international exchange, the University of the Ryukyus Alumni Association is extending an invitation to up to 20 international students to spend time with host families in Okinawa. (Conversational level of Japanese proficiency preferred)
There are four sessions (November 15,22,23,29) available, and each session is about 5 hours in duration.
Home visits are free of charge and no payment is required!

Activities may include:
Experiencing Okinawa food and culture
Visiting places of local interest
Learning about traditional performance art, karate, crafts and more!

Please apply via the QR code using your university email address by Monday October 27!
